PROPOSALS
For publishing, in the city of Washington, a new daily, semi-weekly, and weekly, Democratic Republican paper to be entitled,

UNITED STATES JOURNAL.
BY JESSE E. DOW, & Co.

The first number of our new paper will be issued on the first of May next, with an entire new dress—new type, fine white paper, with other important alterations and improvements. The paper will be devoted to a fearless exposition of democratic principles; it will zealously and unflinchingly oppose each and every effort to establish a mammoth monopoly bank and mischievous corporations and consolidations of wealth, which subvert the rights of the people and undermine the pillars of the republic; it will oppose an oppressive and anti-republican tariff system, the assumption of the State debts by the general government, and all other federal principles which have an inevitable tendency to destroy public prosperity as well as individual happiness. Against all such political delusions we shall wage unchanging, uncompromising war.

The Editors and the Executive, who produce all the real capital of the nation, will find in our paper an unwavering champion of their inalienable rights; the long cherished principles of the Editors are too well known to the public to require any pledge upon this point. To the miscellaneous department, particular attention will be devoted; the ladies will always find in our columns a choice selection from the current literature of the day, as well as original contributions from the most talented writers of our country can boast. A general summary of foreign and domestic news will be furnished.

The conductors have already secured the aid and co-operation of a large number of the most distinguished literary and political writers of the day; arrangements will also be made, at the earliest period possible, to embellish our columns by the contributions of correspondents from abroad. With this brief and imperfect outline of our plan, we very respectfully submit our claims to an extensive patronage to the consideration of a generous public.

PROSPECTUS
OF
THE CHEROKEE ADVOCATE.

THE CHEROKEE NATION, PROPRI-TOR.—WILLIAM ROSS, EDITOR.
THE above is the title of a newspaper, published at TABLE QUARTER, Cherokee nation, the first number of which was issued about the middle of August last.

The object of the council of the nation, in providing for the publication of the Cherokee Advocate, is the physical, moral and intellectual improvement of the Cherokee people.— It will be devoted to these ends, and to the defence of those rights recognized as belonging to them in treaties legally made, at different times with the United States, and of such measures as seem best calculated to secure their peace and happiness, promote their prosperity, and elevate their character as a distinct community.

In commencing and sustaining a public journal in the nation, its success must depend very much upon the kind feelings, liberality and patronage of the citizens of the United States. Among them we are assured there exists generally a desire that the Indians should be dealt with upon just and liberal principles, a lively sympathy in their chequered career, and a deep interest in their character, condition and destiny. Ignorance of their condition, opinions, and claims, has been to them a fountain of many wrongs; a fountain from which they have been forced to drink many bitter draughts.

From this cause, measures of policy in themselves unjust, and highly destructive to their peace and prosperity, have been conceived and persisted in to their accomplishments, with singular pertinacity, by those from whom they have a right to expect and claim protection. It will therefore, be the aim of those having charge of the Advocate, to enlighten public sentiment, as far as possible, as to the feelings, wishes and proper expectations of the Cherokees.

And while it is intended to make the paper national in its one and character, abstaining from all partizanship in the internal politics of the nation, it will nevertheless be open to all but courteous discussions of any measures of policy on the part of the United States, which touch upon or effect the rights and interests, not only of the Cherokees, but also of their red brethren.

TERMS:
The Cherokee Advocate will be printed on an imperial sheet, with new type, both English and Cherokee, once every week, at $3 per annum, payable in advance. And to those subscribers, who read only the Cherokee language, at $2 per annum, in advance.

Advertising will be done on the usual terms.
